What is Shasta Cloud

Shasta Cloud is a white label connectivity platform that lets you deliver enterprise Wi-Fi under your brand. We provide the toolkit including cloud platform, network hardware, and built-in automation so you can sell your own complete managed network solution. Our promise is simple: your network, your rules. We're just the engine that drives it.

Our Platform

Modular & Open Hardware: Hardware from multiple whitebox ODMs for cost and supply flexibility.

Zero-Touch Provisioning: Dramatically reduce deployment times with ZTP and automation.

Cloud-Managed Simplicity: One dashboard to monitor, configure, and support everything.

Full API Access: Seamlessly integrate your own workflows, tools, and people.

Enterprise-Grade Performance: Built to handle carrier-class reliability and scale.

Intelligent Automation: Self-healing, self-scaling, and operationally streamlined with NoOps.

Flexible Deployment: Deploy in public, private, or hybrid cloud environments.

Who It's For

Managed Service Providers (MSPs): Move from reseller to product owner. Control your destiny.

Communication Service Providers (CSPs): Expand beyond connectivity. Own the customer experience.

OEMs/ISVs: Add enterprise-grade Wi-Fi and switching to your stack in weeks, not years.

Why Shasta Cloud

Enterprise Wi-Fi is broken by legacy vendors. Shasta Cloud was built to fix that.

✓ Lower Cost: Hardware at lower costs than traditional OEMs allows you to maximize profits.

✓ Speed to Market: Launch services faster with automation that cuts deployment time by up to 70%.

✓ True Ownership: You control the pricing, the branding, and the customer experience. No markup. No compromises.

✓ Operational Efficiency: Reduce overhead and support costs with intuitive management tools and smart automation.

✓ Scalable Success: Whether you're managing hundreds of devices or millions, Shasta is proven in high-density, carrier-class environments.

✓ Built for Differentiation: Deliver a unique networking solution that sets you apart in a crowded market and evolves as your business grows.
